

Gentlemen; I believe the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

Before this law was put into effect I was bombarded by over 30 calls per week. I now receive only 1 or 2 calls per week and they are the ones claiming I requested information on the internet.

Please leave our law in Indiana as it is.